Background

NPRST

- Sexual assault in the military has been widely publicized in the last few years
- VCNO testimony to Senate Armed Services Committee last year indicated that:

Leadership needs to better understand Sailors' knowledge of Navy sexual assault programs and their perception of sexual assault in the Navy

Sailor input needed to determine perception of sexual assault and awareness of available Navy programs (e.g., SAVI)

- SAVI Quick Poll conducted in April 2004 to determine baseline awareness and perceptions of sexual assault in the Navy and the SAVI program

Recommended that follow-up assessments be conducted to track changes

Objectives

- Survey a representative sample of Sailors on:
  - SAVI program awareness
  - SAVI program training attendance
  - Sexual assault climate issues
- Compare results to last year's assessment

Methodology

NPRST

- Questions taken from 2004 SAVI Quick Poll

Added items on training effectiveness, barriers to/likelihood of reporting sexual assault to Navy authorities

- Scientific Navy-wide poll

Sailors were randomly selected to participate

Stratified by officer/enlisted status and gender to ensure adequate representation of officer and enlisted men and women

- Navy Messages were sent to commands requesting that selected personnel complete the poll online at the Quick Poll website (<http://quickpolling.nprst.navy.mil>)

Commands given one week to complete poll

Poll could only be accessed once by those selected using correct usernames/passwords

Demographics

Poll start date: April 11, 2005

Poll end date: April 18, 2005

Eligible Sample: 6,400
Eligible Returns: 2,181

33% Response Rate on 2004 SAVI
quick poll

Response rate slightly higher than DoD-wide web survey response rates for Navy (28-29%)

Overall Response Rate: 34%

Results statistically weighted to match paygrade and gender distribution of the Navy

Summary

NPRST

- Awareness of SAVI program & services is increasing

Trend found for all groups from 2004 to 2005

- Gains also found for the percentage reporting both sexual assault (SA) training attendance & SAVI training attendance in the last year

All groups reported that training increased knowledge of SA and SAVI programs & services

- Over 90% believe SA is a criminal act and know what actions are considered SA

- 80% or more report that SA is not tolerated at their command, know what to do if assaulted, and feel free to report SA

- Larger percentage of all groups report that SA is occurring at my command

May indicate increased awareness of SA across the Navy

- More than 75% indicate that they would report SA to Navy authorities

Fear of not being believed, embarrassment, and fear of public disclosure key reasons for not reporting

Recommendations

- Focus on survey results to improve SAVI program
- Review SAVI training and attendance requirements
- CNP release sexual assault and SAVI program NAVADMINs and P4
- Implement OSD Directive-type memorandum policies and Navy IG sexual assault study recommendations
- Conduct follow-up SAVI Quick Poll in January 2006 to monitor impact of these actions
